Complaints and Disputes

1. Purpose

That a consumer, their representatives, volunteers & volunteer citizen advocates and staff have access to the internal and external complaints mechanisms. That there are effective systems in place that respond to individual needs, and enable all stakeholders to have input to improving the quality of the service.

2. Policy

Melbourne East Disability Advocacy (MEDA) will uphold the right of consumers, volunteers, volunteer citizen advocates, staff and other stakeholders to make complaints. All complaints will be taken seriously and in confidence and will be investigated and acted upon in a timely manner. This is pivotal for stakeholder satisfaction and continuous improvement.

All individuals will be able to pursue a complaint without a fear of reprisal, retribution, intimidation, or victimization. All complaints handled by the staff and the Committee of Management will be dealt with in a professional and confidential manner, and in accordance with the Privacy Dignity and Confidentiality Policy (Std 1 Rights Pol 003). Where a person from a Culturally and Linguistically Diverse background makes a complaint, services and support will be offered in accordance with the Culturally and Linguistically Diverse Consumers Policy Std 5 Ser Acc Pol 002.

Upon entering MEDA, all consumers, volunteers and staff will be made aware of the complaints and disputes policy. Staff will explain this process to Consumers and Volunteer Citizen Advocates when orientating consumers with the Consumer Booklet Std 5 Ser Acc HB001 and Volunteers with the Volunteer Citizen Advocate Handbook Std 6 Ser Man HB001. Staff will be introduced to the Complaints and Disputes policy during orientation, please see Staff Recruitment Employment and Training Std 6 Ser Man Pol 015. When making a complaint, the complainant will again be reminded of the Complaints and Disputes process.

The Complaints and Disputes process forms (Complaints and Disputes Form Std 4 Fee Com F002, Complaints and Disputes Agreement Std 4 Fee Com F001, Complaints and Disputes Log Std 4 Fee Com F005, Complaints and Disputes Meeting Agenda Std 4 Fee Com F004, and Complaints and Disputes Meeting Guidelines Std 4 Fee Com F003) are based on the Complaints Resolution and Referral Service (CRRS) guidelines. These forms are available in the office and by request. CRRS is an independent complaints and resolution service that handles complaints about services funded under the Commonwealth Disability Services Act. If it is not appropriate for the Executive Officer to be involved, for example if the Executive Officer is involved in the complaint or is a party involved, the Executive Officer will not be involved in the meeting process. Where disputes cannot be resolved, the complainant will be encouraged to seek the services of CRRS, relevant Union or other dispute body.

Staff will encourage the use of the Complaints and Disputes policy and procedure to maintain a cycle of continuous improvement.
